3. Context and Key Issues

- 3.1 All local authorities with adult social care and public health responsibilities are required to have a Health and Wellbeing Board by statute.

3.2 Health and Wellbeing Boards were established under the Health and Social Care Act 2012 to act as a forum in which key leaders from the local health and care system can work together to improve the health and wellbeing of their local population.

4 Engagement

4.1 It is not necessary to carry out public engagement.

5 Implications

Resources:	Members of the Board are expected to commit sufficient resources in terms of attendance at Board meetings and training events, and to participate in discussions and decision making on a regular basis.
Legal and Governance:	The Health and Wellbeing Board is a formal statutory committee of the local authority, established under Section 194 of the Health and Social Care Act 2012. The Board is to be treated as if it were a committee appointed by the local authority under section 102 of the Local Government Act 1972. (Section 194(11)).
Risk:	There are no direct implications arising from this report, however, the Board considers such implications on all matters that it considers, with health and wellbeing being a key consideration of course.
